

LETTERS FOR THE NINTH:

April 15, 1943

Mr. Chester Washington
Pittsburgh Courier
2628 Center Avenue
Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania

Dear Mr. Washington:

The Newark Eagles will play their first home game of the 1943 season at Ruppert Stadium on Sunday afternoon, May 9th, against the Homestead Grays.

This will be an exhibition game as you know, we open the Negro National League season here against the Philadelphia Stars on May 16th.

The Eagles would enjoy having you present on the 9th, as we know that you will probably be covering an opening game at home on the 16th and will not be able to be with us at our opening.

Hoping to have the privilege of seeing you on the 9th and thanking you for the past favors you have rendered our club, I am,

Very truly yours,

Rafa Manley

P.S.:-If you can come, let me know so I can send you tickets.
